Come and join a School where, Staff feel supported and enjoy their work. Staff retention is good, and morale is high. This results in a warm and inviting homely environment, where children have flourished (Ofsted 2023)

We're looking for an experienced cook to join our busy catering team in providing enjoyable and nutritious meals for children and young people. With a Five Star Food Hygiene rating year in year out and a qualified and competent team we're proud of our catering department. Not only their commitment to making sure young people consistently enjoy a free hot meal but their themed lunches celebrating everything from international cuisine to traditional and new festive occasions.

Applicants must have experience of planning, preparing and cooking a variety of menus to a consistently high standard and catering for special dietary needs. Other essentials include a commitment to working within Department for Education standards and guidance on school food and making lunch times happy and healthy. Relevant underpinning catering and food hygiene certificates are desirable but not essential as opportunities for sponsored training is available.

Royal School for the Deaf Derby is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults and expects all staff to share this commitment. All roles at the School are regulated activities as defined by the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006. Appointments are subject to a satisfactory criminal record check at an enhanced level. In line with changes to KCSIE 2022 the school has considered and implemented online searches of candidates to help identify any matters that may merit exploration at interview

Closing date for applications: 15 March 2024.
